Overview

Three very different settings in five nights: the city buzz of Kuala Lumpur, cool mountain air at Genting Highlands and beach days in Langkawi. Genting sits at about 1,800 metres where temperatures stay near 16–22°C through the year, so couples get one night of blankets, mist and the Awana SkyWay cable car ride over rainforest.

Kuala Lumpur covers Batu Caves, Merdeka Square and the KLCC fountain show, with free time for Bukit Bintang shopping. Langkawi brings the SkyCab, the Sky Bridge and island hopping to Dayang Bunting, plus two nights on Pantai Cenang.

The route works round the year, but February to April and June to September give the driest beach weather. Genting is popular with Indian families during summer holidays, so rooms there are confirmed early. Includes honeymoon room decoration and one candlelight dinner.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day

1

Arrival in Kuala Lumpur & Evening at KLCC

Arrive at KLIA and transfer to your hotel in the Bukit Bintang area. After check-in, keep the evening easy with a visit to KLCC Park for the fountain show below the Petronas Twin Towers and a stroll through Suria KLCC. Dinner is on your own; Little India on Jalan Masjid India and the food stalls of Jalan Alor are both close by. Honeymoon cake and room decoration are arranged at the hotel.

Day

2

City Tour, Batu Caves & Free Shopping Time

A half-day tour covers Merdeka Square, the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, the National Monument, the National Mosque and a photo stop at Istana Negara. Continue to Batu Caves, the limestone cave temple with the 42-metre Lord Murugan statue and 272 coloured steps. Afternoon is free. Couples often use it for Pavilion KL and Lot 10 shopping, an Aquaria KLCC visit, or a couple massage in Bukit Bintang. Return to the hotel for overnight in Kuala Lumpur.

Day

Drive to Genting Highlands & Awana SkyWay

Check out after breakfast and drive about an hour north to Genting Highlands through the Titiwangsa range. Board the Awana SkyWay cable car for a ten-minute glide over rainforest canopy to the hilltop, with a stop at Chin Swee Caves Temple on the way up. Check in at a hotel in the Resorts World complex. The evening is free for the indoor arcades, Sky Avenue mall and the cool mountain air, with temperatures often dipping to 16°C after dark.

Day

4

Genting to Langkawi & Sky Bridge

Descend by cable car and drive to Kuala Lumpur airport for the flight to Langkawi. Transfer to your beach hotel at Pantai Cenang. In the afternoon, take the Panorama Langkawi SkyCab to the top station on Gunung Mat Cincang and walk the curved Sky Bridge, suspended 660 metres above sea level. Head back for sunset on Cenang beach, followed by your private candlelight dinner with a set menu of grilled seafood or vegetarian options.

Day

Island Hopping & Langkawi at Leisure

Morning speedboat island hopping visits the Lake of the Pregnant Maiden on Dayang Bunting Island, an eagle feeding bay where Brahminy kites swoop close to the boat, and Beras Basah for a sandy stop. Afternoon is free for duty-free shopping in Cenang, a mangrove cruise in Kilim Geoforest Park as an add-on, or simply the hotel pool. Sunset from the beach shacks along Cenang is the standard end to the day.

Day

6

Departure from Langkawi

After breakfast and check-out, use any spare time for last-minute chocolate and perfume shopping at Kuah town's duty-free outlets or the Langkawi Craft Complex. Transfer to Langkawi International Airport for your flight home, usually connecting through Kuala Lumpur. Our local team assists with luggage and check-in.

? Frequently Asked Questions

? What is the best time to visit Malaysia from India?

December to February is the most reliable window, with drier weather in Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Langkawi and daytime temperatures around 31–33°C. March to May stays warm and works well if you want lower crowds. The west coast (Langkawi, Penang) gets heavy rain from September to early November, while the east coast islands like Perhentian and Redang shut down roughly from November to February during the northeast monsoon. If you are heading to Borneo for Sabah's diving or Mount Kinabalu, aim for March to September. Chinese New Year (January or February) and Hari Raya bring festive energy but also higher hotel rates and packed transport.

? How much does a Malaysia trip cost from India per person?

A 6-night Malaysia package from India typically costs Rs 65,000 to Rs 95,000 per person on twin sharing, covering return flights, 3–4 star hotels, airport transfers, breakfast and key sightseeing. Budget travellers doing it independently can manage Rs 45,000 to Rs 55,000 by booking AirAsia or Batik Air fares early and staying in Bukit Bintang budget hotels. Mid-range daily spend runs about Rs 3,500–5,000 covering meals, Grab rides and entry tickets. Genting cable car, Petronas Twin Towers observation deck and Langkawi Sky Bridge each cost roughly Rs 700–1,900. Luxury island resorts in Langkawi push the total past Rs 1.5 lakh per person.

? Do Indians need a visa for Malaysia?

Indian passport holders currently enjoy visa-free entry to Malaysia for stays up to 30 days, a facility Malaysia extended for Indian and Chinese nationals from December 2023. You must complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) online within three days before arrival, which is free. Carry proof of return or onward ticket, confirmed hotel bookings and sufficient funds, as immigration officers do check these. Your passport should have at least six months validity. Policy extensions are announced periodically, so verify the current status on the Immigration Department of Malaysia website or with your tour operator before booking non-refundable flights.

❓ How do I reach Malaysia from India?

Direct flights to Kuala Lumpur International Airport operate from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kochi, Thiruvananthapuram, Kolkata and Ahmedabad on Malaysia Airlines, AirAsia X, Batik Air Malaysia, IndiGo and Air India Express. Flying time is around 4 hours 30 minutes from Chennai and Bengaluru, and about 5 hours 30 minutes from Delhi. Return fares usually sit between Rs 18,000 and Rs 32,000 depending on season. Penang has direct connections from Chennai on some carriers. For Langkawi, Kota Kinabalu or Kuching, take a domestic hop from KLIA, which takes an hour or so and costs Rs 3,000–6,000 when booked in advance.

❓ How many days are enough for a Malaysia trip?

Six to seven nights suits most first-time Indian travellers. A practical split is three nights in Kuala Lumpur covering Petronas Twin Towers, Batu Caves, Merdeka Square and a day trip to Genting Highlands or Putrajaya, followed by three nights in Langkawi for the cable car, island hopping and beaches. If you prefer heritage and food, swap Langkawi for Penang and spend two nights exploring George Town, Kek Lok Si and Penang Hill. Adding Malacca needs one extra night. Sabah or Sarawak for orangutans and diving deserves a separate four-night extension. Anything under five nights leaves you rushing between airports rather than enjoying the destinations.

❓ Is Malaysia safe for Indian tourists and solo travellers?

Malaysia is among the safer Southeast Asian destinations for Indian travellers, including women and solo visitors. Violent crime against tourists is uncommon; the practical risks are pickpocketing and bag snatching in crowded areas like Petaling Street, Bukit Bintang and Chow Kit, and occasional taxi overcharging, which you avoid by using the Grab app. Malaysia has strict drug laws with severe penalties, so never carry parcels for anyone. Dress modestly when visiting mosques and in conservative states like Kelantan and Terengganu. Tap water is treated but stick to bottled water. Save the tourist police number 03-2149 6590 and keep digital copies of your passport and MDAC confirmation.

❓ Is vegetarian and Indian food easily available in Malaysia?

Yes, easily. Malaysia has a large Indian-origin population, and Kuala Lumpur's Brickfields (Little India) is packed with South Indian vegetarian restaurants serving banana leaf meals, dosa and thali for Rs 250–500. Jalan Masjid India and Bangsar have more options, including Gujarati and North Indian places. Penang's Little India in George Town and Ipoh also serve familiar food. Halal certification is widespread, so Muslim travellers from India have no difficulty. Do try local vegetarian-friendly dishes like roti canai with dal, nasi lemak (ask without anchovies), cendol and Nyonya kuih. In Langkawi and island resorts, Indian food is limited, so inform your hotel about dietary needs at booking.
