Overview

A three-city honeymoon that adds Penang's heritage streets to the usual Kuala Lumpur and Langkawi combination. George Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, gives couples a day of street art on Armenian Street, the Kek Lok Si temple complex, Penang Hill's funicular and a very good street food scene including Little India on Lebuhr Pasar.

Kuala Lumpur handles the city sightseeing and shopping, then a short flight brings you to Langkawi for two beach nights with the SkyCab, Sky Bridge and island hopping. Transfers between Penang and Langkawi are by ferry or flight depending on schedules.

Six nights allow one relaxed day in each place instead of rushing. Weather is best February to April, when Penang averages 31°C days, and June to August for calmer Andaman seas. Honeymoon decoration and one candlelight dinner in Langkawi are included.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day

1

Arrival in Kuala Lumpur

Arrive at Kuala Lumpur International Airport and transfer to your hotel in Bukit Bintang. After freshening up, spend the evening at KLCC Park watching the Lake Symphony fountain show against the Petronas Twin Towers, then walk across to Suria KLCC. Dinner can be at any of the Indian restaurants near Jalan Masjid India or the busy stalls of Jalan Alor. Honeymoon cake and bed decoration are waiting in the room.

Day

2

Kuala Lumpur Sightseeing & Batu Caves

Morning city tour covers Merdeka Square, the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, National Mosque, National Monument and a photo stop at Istana Negara, followed by Batu Caves with its golden Murugan statue and 272 steps. The afternoon is free for shopping at Pavilion KL, Lot 10 and Berjaya Times Square, or an optional Petronas Skybridge visit if slots are available. Overnight in Kuala Lumpur.

Day

3

Fly to Penang & Batu Ferringhi Evening

Check out and fly to Penang, a flight of about an hour. Transfer to your hotel at Batu Ferringhi or in George Town. Spend the afternoon at leisure by the beach or pool. In the evening, browse the Batu Ferringhi night market for souvenirs and T-shirts, or head into George Town for dinner on Chulia Street. Couples staying in George Town can walk to the Esplanade for sea breeze and street food.

Day

4

George Town Heritage & Penang Hill

A full day in Penang starting with Kek Lok Si, the largest Buddhist temple complex in Malaysia, and its seven-tier Pagoda of Ten Thousand Buddhas. Continue to Penang Hill for the funicular train ride to 830 metres, where the air is cooler and the island view stretches to the Penang Bridge. Afternoon is for George Town's UNESCO core: the Kids on Bicycle mural on Armenian Street, Cheong Fatt Tze Blue Mansion, Khoo Kongsi clan house and Little India for a masala tea break.

Day

5

Penang to Langkawi & Sky Bridge

Check out and travel to Langkawi by ferry from Swettenham Pier or by short flight, as per the day's schedule. On arrival, transfer to your hotel near Pantai Cenang. In the afternoon, ride the Panorama Langkawi SkyCab up Gunung Mat Cincang and walk the Sky Bridge for views across the Andaman Sea. Return to Cenang for sunset, then a private candlelight dinner arranged for the two of you.

Day

6

Langkawi Island Hopping & Leisure

Board a shared speedboat for island hopping: the Lake of the Pregnant Maiden on Dayang Bunting, eagle feeding where Brahminy kites circle low, and a beach halt at Beras Basah. Back by afternoon, the rest of the day is free. Add a Kilim Geoforest Park mangrove cruise with bat caves and fish farms, a couple spa session, or duty-free shopping at Cenang and Kuah. Sunset drinks on the beach round off the day.

Day

7

Departure from Langkawi

Breakfast at the hotel, then check out. If your flight is later in the day, visit the Langkawi Craft Complex or the Eagle Square at Kuah for a final photograph, and stock up on duty-free chocolates. Transfer to Langkawi International Airport for the onward journey, usually via Kuala Lumpur. Our representative helps with the airport formalities.

? Frequently Asked Questions

? What is the best time to visit Malaysia from India?

December to February is the most reliable window, with drier weather in Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Langkawi and daytime temperatures around 31–33°C. March to May stays warm and works well if you want lower crowds. The west coast (Langkawi, Penang) gets heavy rain from September to early November, while the east coast islands like Perhentian and Redang shut down roughly from November to February during the northeast monsoon. If you are heading to Borneo for Sabah's diving or Mount Kinabalu, aim for March to September. Chinese New Year (January or February) and Hari Raya bring festive energy but also higher hotel rates and packed transport.

? How much does a Malaysia trip cost from India per person?

A 6-night Malaysia package from India typically costs Rs 65,000 to Rs 95,000 per person on twin sharing, covering return flights, 3–4 star hotels, airport transfers, breakfast and key sightseeing. Budget travellers doing it independently can manage Rs 45,000 to Rs 55,000 by booking AirAsia or Batik Air fares early and staying in Bukit Bintang budget hotels. Mid-range daily spend runs about Rs 3,500–5,000 covering meals, Grab rides and entry tickets. Genting cable car, Petronas Twin Towers observation deck and Langkawi Sky Bridge each cost roughly Rs 700–1,900. Luxury island resorts in Langkawi push the total past Rs 1.5 lakh per person.

❓ Do Indians need a visa for Malaysia?

Indian passport holders currently enjoy visa-free entry to Malaysia for stays up to 30 days, a facility Malaysia extended for Indian and Chinese nationals from December 2023. You must complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) online within three days before arrival, which is free. Carry proof of return or onward ticket, confirmed hotel bookings and sufficient funds, as immigration officers do check these. Your passport should have at least six months validity. Policy extensions are announced periodically, so verify the current status on the Immigration Department of Malaysia website or with your tour operator before booking non-refundable flights.

❓ How do I reach Malaysia from India?

Direct flights to Kuala Lumpur International Airport operate from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kochi, Thiruvananthapuram, Kolkata and Ahmedabad on Malaysia Airlines, AirAsia X, Batik Air Malaysia, IndiGo and Air India Express. Flying time is around 4 hours 30 minutes from Chennai and Bengaluru, and about 5 hours 30 minutes from Delhi. Return fares usually sit between Rs 18,000 and Rs 32,000 depending on season. Penang has direct connections from Chennai on some carriers. For Langkawi, Kota Kinabalu or Kuching, take a domestic hop from KLIA, which takes an hour or so and costs Rs 3,000–6,000 when booked in advance.

❓ How many days are enough for a Malaysia trip?

Six to seven nights suits most first-time Indian travellers. A practical split is three nights in Kuala Lumpur covering Petronas Twin Towers, Batu Caves, Merdeka Square and a day trip to Genting Highlands or Putrajaya, followed by three nights in Langkawi for the cable car, island hopping and beaches. If you prefer heritage and food, swap Langkawi for Penang and spend two nights exploring George Town, Kek Lok Si and Penang Hill. Adding Malacca needs one extra night. Sabah or Sarawak for orangutans and diving deserves a separate four-night extension. Anything under five nights leaves you rushing between airports rather than enjoying the destinations.

❓ Is Malaysia safe for Indian tourists and solo travellers?

Malaysia is among the safer Southeast Asian destinations for Indian travellers, including women and solo visitors. Violent crime against tourists is uncommon; the practical risks are pickpocketing and bag snatching in crowded areas like Petaling Street, Bukit Bintang and Chow Kit, and occasional taxi overcharging, which you avoid by using the Grab app. Malaysia has strict drug laws with severe penalties, so never carry parcels for anyone. Dress modestly when visiting mosques and in conservative states like Kelantan and Terengganu. Tap water is treated but stick to bottled water. Save the tourist police number 03-2149 6590 and keep digital copies of your passport and MDAC confirmation.

❓ Is vegetarian and Indian food easily available in Malaysia?

Yes, easily. Malaysia has a large Indian-origin population, and Kuala Lumpur's Brickfields (Little India) is packed with South Indian vegetarian restaurants serving banana leaf meals, dosa and thali for Rs 250–500. Jalan Masjid India and Bangsar have more options, including Gujarati and North Indian places. Penang's Little India in George Town and Ipoh also serve familiar food. Halal certification is widespread, so Muslim travellers from India have no difficulty. Do try local vegetarian-friendly dishes like roti canai with dal, nasi lemak (ask without anchovies), cendol and Nyonya kuih. In Langkawi and island resorts, Indian food is limited, so inform your hotel about dietary needs at booking.
