Overview

The longest of our Malaysia honeymoon routes, built for couples who want highlands, heritage towns and islands in one trip. Cameron Highlands at around 1,500 metres brings tea estates, strawberry farms and 18–22°C days, a genuine change of climate from the coast. Penang delivers George Town's UNESCO heritage lanes and Kek Lok Si, while Langkawi provides two beach nights with the SkyCab and island hopping.

Melaka closes the trip with Dutch Square, Jonker Street and a river cruise, an easy two-hour drive from Kuala Lumpur airport on departure day.

Eight nights mean no more than one long drive per day and two full days each in Penang and Langkawi. February to April and June to August are the most reliable months. Includes honeymoon room decoration, one candlelight dinner and a couple photo session in Langkawi.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day

1

Arrival in Kuala Lumpur & Fountain Show at KLCC

Arrive at Kuala Lumpur International Airport and transfer to your hotel in Bukit Bintang. Rest, then head to KLCC Park in the evening for the fountain show below the Petronas Twin Towers, followed by a walk through Suria KLCC. Dinner options range from vegetarian Indian food near Jalan Masjid India to satay and grilled fish at Jalan Alor. Honeymoon cake and bed decoration are set up in the room.

Day

2

Kuala Lumpur City Tour, Batu Caves & Shopping

Morning tour of Merdeka Square, the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, National Mosque, National Monument and Istana Negara, then Batu Caves with the 272 painted steps and Lord Murugan statue. Afternoon free for Pavilion KL, Lot 10 and Central Market, where batik and pewter make good souvenirs. Couples who want a skyline view can book the KL Tower Sky Deck or a rooftop bar in Bukit Bintang for the evening. Overnight in Kuala Lumpur.

Day

3

Drive to Cameron Highlands & Tea Estates

Check out and drive roughly four hours north to Cameron Highlands, climbing through winding hill roads into tea country. Visit a BOH tea plantation for a walk among the bushes and a cup at the estate cafe, then stop at a strawberry farm and a rose or cactus garden. Check in at your hotel in Tanah Rata or Brinchang. Evenings here are cool, often near 15–18°C, and the night market at Brinchang is worth a browse for corn, steamed buns and hill vegetables.

Day

4

Mossy Forest, then on to Penang

Early morning visit to the Mossy Forest boardwalk at Gunung Brinchang, where mist and moss-covered trees make for good photographs, then drive down to Penang, about four hours away, crossing the Penang Bridge to the island. Check in at Batu Ferringhi or George Town and keep the evening light: a walk along Batu Ferringhi beach and its night market, or dinner on Chulia Street in George Town.

Day

5

Penang Heritage Day: Kek Lok Si & Penang Hill

Full day in Penang. Start at Kek Lok Si Temple with its Pagoda of Ten Thousand Buddhas and the bronze Kuan Yin statue, then take the funicular up Penang Hill for cooler air and island views. In the afternoon, explore George Town's UNESCO core: the Kids on Bicycle mural on Armenian Street, Khoo Kongsi clan house, Cheong Fatt Tze Blue Mansion and the Clan Jetties. End with tea in Little India on Lebuhr Pasar before returning to the hotel.

Day

6

Penang to Langkawi & Sky Bridge Sunset

Travel from Penang to Langkawi by ferry from Swettenham Pier or by a short flight, depending on schedules. Transfer to your hotel at Pantai Cenang or Pantai Tengah. In the afternoon, ride the Panorama Langkawi SkyCab up Gunung Mat Cincang and cross the Sky Bridge for wide Andaman Sea views. Return for sunset on Cenang beach, then your private candlelight dinner with a set menu.

Day

7

Island Hopping & Kilim Mangrove Cruise

Morning island hopping by speedboat to the Lake of the Pregnant Maiden on Dayang Bunting, the eagle feeding bay and Beras Basah island. After lunch, board a boat at Kilim Geoforest Park for a cruise through mangrove channels, limestone cliffs, a bat cave and fish farms where you can hand-feed stingrays. A short couple photo session is arranged during golden hour on the beach. Overnight in Langkawi.

Day

8

Fly to Kuala Lumpur & Drive to Melaka

Check out and fly to Kuala Lumpur, then drive about two hours south to Melaka. Check in and set out to see the red Dutch Square with Christ Church and the Stadthuys, climb St Paul's Hill for the church ruins and A Famosa gate, and take the Melaka River cruise past painted shophouses. Evening is for Jonker Street, busiest on weekend nights with its market, antique shops and Nyonya food stalls.

Day

9

Melaka to Kuala Lumpur Airport & Departure

After breakfast and check-out, drive back towards Kuala Lumpur International Airport, about two hours from Melaka, with a stop at a Malacca Straits viewpoint or a coconut shake stall if time allows. Our representative assists with drop-off and airport formalities for your international flight home.

? Frequently Asked Questions

? What is the best time to visit Malaysia from India?

December to February is the most reliable window, with drier weather in Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Langkawi and daytime temperatures around 31-33°C. March to May stays warm and works well if you want lower crowds. The west coast (Langkawi, Penang) gets heavy rain from September to early November, while the east coast islands like Perhentian and Redang shut down roughly from November to February during the northeast monsoon. If you are heading to Borneo for Sabah's diving or Mount Kinabalu, aim for March to September. Chinese New Year (January or February) and Hari Raya bring festive energy but also higher hotel rates and packed transport.

❓ How much does a Malaysia trip cost from India per person?

A 6-night Malaysia package from India typically costs Rs 65,000 to Rs 95,000 per person on twin sharing, covering return flights, 3-4 star hotels, airport transfers, breakfast and key sightseeing. Budget travellers doing it independently can manage Rs 45,000 to Rs 55,000 by booking AirAsia or Batik Air fares early and staying in Bukit Bintang budget hotels. Mid-range daily spend runs about Rs 3,500-5,000 covering meals, Grab rides and entry tickets. Genting cable car, Petronas Twin Towers observation deck and Langkawi Sky Bridge each cost roughly Rs 700-1,900. Luxury island resorts in Langkawi push the total past Rs 1.5 lakh per person.

❓ Do Indians need a visa for Malaysia?

Indian passport holders currently enjoy visa-free entry to Malaysia for stays up to 30 days, a facility Malaysia extended for Indian and Chinese nationals from December 2023. You must complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) online within three days before arrival, which is free. Carry proof of return or onward ticket, confirmed hotel bookings and sufficient funds, as immigration officers do check these. Your passport should have at least six months validity. Policy extensions are announced periodically, so verify the current status on the Immigration Department of Malaysia website or with your tour operator before booking non-refundable flights.

❓ How do I reach Malaysia from India?

Direct flights to Kuala Lumpur International Airport operate from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kochi, Thiruvananthapuram, Kolkata and Ahmedabad on Malaysia Airlines, AirAsia X, Batik Air Malaysia, IndiGo and Air India Express. Flying time is around 4 hours 30 minutes from Chennai and Bengaluru, and about 5 hours 30 minutes from Delhi. Return fares usually sit between Rs 18,000 and Rs 32,000 depending on season. Penang has direct connections from Chennai on some carriers. For Langkawi, Kota Kinabalu or Kuching, take a domestic hop from KLIA, which takes an hour or so and costs Rs 3,000-6,000 when booked in advance.

❓ How many days are enough for a Malaysia trip?

Six to seven nights suits most first-time Indian travellers. A practical split is three nights in Kuala Lumpur covering Petronas Twin Towers, Batu Caves, Merdeka Square and a day trip to Genting Highlands or Putrajaya, followed by three nights in Langkawi for the cable car, island hopping and beaches. If you prefer heritage and food, swap Langkawi for Penang and spend two nights exploring George Town, Kek Lok Si and Penang Hill. Adding Malacca needs one extra night. Sabah or Sarawak for orangutans and diving deserves a separate four-night extension. Anything under five nights leaves you rushing between airports rather than enjoying the destinations.

❓ Is Malaysia safe for Indian tourists and solo travellers?

Malaysia is among the safer Southeast Asian destinations for Indian travellers, including women and solo visitors. Violent crime against tourists is uncommon; the practical risks are pickpocketing and bag snatching in crowded areas like Petaling Street, Bukit Bintang and Chow Kit, and occasional taxi overcharging, which you avoid by using the Grab app. Malaysia has strict drug laws with severe penalties, so never carry parcels for anyone. Dress modestly when visiting mosques and in conservative states like Kelantan and Terengganu. Tap water is treated but stick to bottled water. Save the tourist police number 03-2149 6590 and keep digital copies of your passport and MDAC confirmation.

❓ Is vegetarian and Indian food easily available in Malaysia?

Yes, easily. Malaysia has a large Indian-origin population, and Kuala Lumpur's Brickfields (Little India) is packed with South Indian vegetarian restaurants serving banana leaf meals, dosa and thali for Rs 250-500. Jalan Masjid India and Bangsar have more options, including Gujarati and North Indian places. Penang's Little India in George Town and Ipoh also serve familiar food. Halal certification is widespread, so Muslim travellers from India have no difficulty. Do try local vegetarian-friendly dishes like roti canai with dal, nasi lemak (ask without anchovies), cendol and Nyonya kuih. In Langkawi and island resorts, Indian food is limited, so inform your hotel about dietary needs at booking.
