Overview

A short, focused beach holiday on Langkawi, the duty-free island in the Andaman Sea off Malaysia's north-west coast. The stay is at Pantai Cenang, the island's main beach strip, where warm shallow water, banana boat rides and parasailing operators sit within walking distance of cafes and 7-Elevens. Over two nights you get a full island-hopping boat trip to Pulau Dayang Bunti and Pulau Beras Basah, sunset time on the sand, and a ride on the Langkawi SkyCab to Machinchang for views over the Andaman islands. This works well as an add-on to a Kuala Lumpur work trip or as a first taste of Malaysian beaches for families with limited leave. Best months are December to March, when rain is lowest and daytime temperatures sit around 31 to 33 degrees Celsius. Alcohol and chocolate are duty-free here, which most Indian travellers use for shopping on the last evening.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day

1

Arrive Langkawi & Pantai Cenang Sunset

Land at Langkawi International Airport and transfer to your hotel near Pantai Cenang, about 15 minutes away. After check-in and rest, walk down to the beach for the late afternoon, when the water is calm and the sand fills up with families. Watch the sunset over the Andaman Sea, then explore the Cenang strip for duty-free shops and seafood cafes. Indian and halal food options are easily available along Jalan Pantai Cenang. Evening free for water sports at your own cost.

Day

Island Hopping & Langkawi SkyCab

Morning island hopping tour by speedboat from Cenang jetty. First stop is Pulau Dayang Bunting for the freshwater Lake of the Pregnant Maiden, followed by eagle feeding in the mangrove channels where Brahminy kites circle low, and finally Pulau Beras Basah for swimming and beach time. Return by afternoon and head to Oriental Village for the Langkawi SkyCab to Machinchang peak, with the curved SkyBridge looking out over rainforest and the Thai islands on clear days. Return to Cenang for a beach dinner.

Day

Beach Morning & Departure

Keep the morning for a slow breakfast and a last swim at Pantai Cenang, or walk 10 minutes to the quieter Pantai Tengah. Pick up duty-free chocolates and cosmetics near the airport road before check-out. Transfer to Langkawi International Airport for your onward flight to Kuala Lumpur or home. If your flight is late, the underwater world aquarium at Cenang is a good gap filler for families with children.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the best time to visit Malaysia from India?

December to February is the most reliable window, with drier weather in Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Langkawi and daytime temperatures around 31–33°C. March to May stays warm and works well if you want lower crowds. The west coast (Langkawi, Penang) gets heavy rain from September to early November, while the east coast islands like Perhentian and Redang shut down roughly from November to February during the northeast monsoon. If you are heading to Borneo for Sabah's diving or Mount Kinabalu, aim for March to September. Chinese New Year (January or February) and Hari Raya bring festive energy but also higher hotel rates and packed transport.

❓ How much does a Malaysia trip cost from India per person?

A 6-night Malaysia package from India typically costs Rs 65,000 to Rs 95,000 per person on twin sharing, covering return flights, 3-4 star hotels, airport transfers, breakfast and key sightseeing. Budget travellers doing it independently can manage Rs 45,000 to Rs 55,000 by booking AirAsia or Batik Air fares early and staying in Bukit Bintang budget hotels. Mid-range daily spend runs about Rs 3,500-5,000 covering meals, Grab rides and entry tickets. Genting cable car, Petronas Twin Towers observation deck and Langkawi Sky Bridge each cost roughly Rs 700-1,900. Luxury island resorts in Langkawi push the total past Rs 1.5 lakh per person.

❓ Do Indians need a visa for Malaysia?

Indian passport holders currently enjoy visa-free entry to Malaysia for stays up to 30 days, a facility Malaysia extended for Indian and Chinese nationals from December 2023. You must complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) online within three days before arrival, which is free. Carry proof of return or onward ticket, confirmed hotel bookings and sufficient funds, as immigration officers do check these. Your passport should have at least six months validity. Policy extensions are announced periodically, so verify the current status on the Immigration Department of Malaysia website or with your tour operator before booking non-refundable flights.

❓ How do I reach Malaysia from India?

Direct flights to Kuala Lumpur International Airport operate from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kochi, Thiruvananthapuram, Kolkata and Ahmedabad on Malaysia Airlines, AirAsia X, Batik Air Malaysia, IndiGo and Air India Express. Flying time is around 4 hours 30 minutes from Chennai and Bengaluru, and about 5 hours 30 minutes from Delhi. Return fares usually sit between Rs 18,000 and Rs 32,000 depending on season. Penang has direct connections from Chennai on some carriers. For Langkawi, Kota Kinabalu or Kuching, take a domestic hop from KLIA, which takes an hour or so and costs Rs 3,000-6,000 when booked in advance.

❓ How many days are enough for a Malaysia trip?

Six to seven nights suits most first-time Indian travellers. A practical split is three nights in Kuala Lumpur covering Petronas Twin Towers, Batu Caves, Merdeka Square and a day trip to Genting Highlands or Putrajaya, followed by three nights in Langkawi for the cable car, island hopping and beaches. If you prefer heritage and food, swap Langkawi for Penang and spend two nights exploring George Town, Kek Lok Si and Penang Hill. Adding Malacca needs one extra night. Sabah or Sarawak for orangutans and diving deserves a separate four-night extension. Anything under five nights leaves you rushing between airports rather than enjoying the destinations.

❓ Is Malaysia safe for Indian tourists and solo travellers?

Malaysia is among the safer Southeast Asian destinations for Indian travellers, including women and solo visitors. Violent crime against tourists is uncommon; the practical risks are pickpocketing and bag snatching in crowded areas like Petaling Street, Bukit Bintang and Chow Kit, and occasional taxi overcharging, which you avoid by using the Grab app. Malaysia has strict drug laws with severe penalties, so never carry parcels for anyone. Dress modestly when visiting mosques and in conservative states like Kelantan and Terengganu. Tap water is treated but stick to bottled water. Save the tourist police number 03-2149 6590 and keep digital copies of your passport and MDAC confirmation.

❓ Is vegetarian and Indian food easily available in Malaysia?

Yes, easily. Malaysia has a large Indian-origin population, and Kuala Lumpur's Brickfields (Little India) is packed with South Indian vegetarian restaurants serving banana leaf meals, dosa and thali for Rs 250-500. Jalan Masjid India and Bangsar have more options, including Gujarati and North Indian places. Penang's Little India in George Town and Ipoh also serve familiar food. Halal certification is widespread, so Muslim travellers from India have no difficulty. Do try local vegetarian-friendly dishes like roti canai with dal, nasi lemak (ask without anchovies), cendol and Nyonya kuih. In Langkawi and island resorts, Indian food is limited, so inform your hotel about dietary needs at booking.
