Evening at leisure with a guided short nature walk along the riverbank and a campfire with local storytelling.

2

Early Morning Jeep Safari (Bijrani Zone) & Birdwatching

Set off for an early morning jeep safari in Bijrani Zone — one of the most popular wildlife zones in Corbett known for frequent sightings of tigers, elephants, and deer. Return to camp for brunch and relax. Post-lunch enjoy a guided birdwatching walk focusing on migratory and resident species around the river and farmland. Evening cultural program or family bonfire.

This full-day excursion covers deep forest habitats ideal for tiger, leopard, swamp deer, and diverse birdlife. Lunch en route or at designated forest lodges. If Dhikala permits are unavailable, a full-day safari to other deeper zones or a combined jeep + nature trail is arranged.*

Day

Elephant Ride / Jeep Safari & Village Visit

Choose between a peaceful elephant-back safari (subject to availability) or another early-morning jeep safari in Jhirna/Dhela—excellent for spotting birdlife and herbivores. After lunch, take a short excursion to a nearby village to experience local Kumaoni culture and crafts. Evening free for family activities at camp and optional night-sky viewing.

Day

Sunrise Safari, Corbett Museum & Riverside Leisure

Enjoy a final sunrise jeep safari in a recommended zone (typically Dhela or Bijrani) for last-chance wildlife viewing and photography. After returning to camp, visit the Corbett Museum or Garjia Temple (short drive) for a cultural touch. Spend the afternoon relaxing by the river—optional activities include catch-and-release fishing or short coracle rides. Farewell dinner with a summary of your adventure.

Day

6

Morning Nature Walk & Departure
