Early morning Jeep Safari into the Bijrani/Jhirna zone (depending on permit allocation). Track wildlife at dawn – a prime time for sightings of tigers, sambhar, spotted deer, and a variety of birds. Return to the lodge for lunch and rest.

In the evening, prepare for the signature Night Safari (organized by the lodge/authorized operator). The night safari offers a guided, lantern-assisted exploration of the buffer areas and grasslands – a unique chance to hear nocturnal wildlife and possibly spot shy mammals.

Important: Night Safari operates under strict forest department rules and must be pre-booked. Cameras with flash may be restricted.

Canter Safari to Core/Reserved Zone

After breakfast, embark on a Canter Safari (shared open-top vehicle) into deeper zones such as Dhikala / Bijrani depending on permits. Canter safaris offer elevated viewing and access to broader routes for better wildlife viewing.

Spend the day enjoying lodge activities — guided nature walks, birdwatching sessions, or a photography workshop (if available). Evening bonfire and cultural interactions (where arranged) provide a cozy end to the day.

Note: Safari timings are strictly regulated by the forest department; exact slots will be confirmed at the lodge.

Day
